TURN USELESS RUBBISH INTO AMAZING NEW CREATIONS!

Totally Rubbish is a fresh, exciting art show where our presenters Michelle Ackerley and Nigel Clarke turn worthless trash into creative and useful treasure. The series focuses on recycling, upcycling and repurposing and is packed full of original and cool ideas.

Gaining inspiration from amazing artists who create incredible works of art from recycled materials, Michelle and Nigel show you how to make your own creations from sweet wrappers, old plastic toys, telephone directories and cardboard boxes. They create 'Something For Nothing' from a bin bag full of rubbish, like plastic bottles turning into a disco bottle ball or a pile of crisp packets turning into funky jewellery. A 'Mini Make' conjures up something simple out of things lying around, for example an old CD and a bottle top are made into a hovercraft and a balloon with some rice into juggling balls. They show you great ways to prank your mates by creating such things as fake poo or a spilt drink. Each episode ends on a big scale, with sand masterpieces, cardboard dinosaurs constructed in museums and funky music made in junkyards. Peppered through every episode are amazing animations and facts. Totally Rubbish is innovative and jam-packed full of brilliant ideas!
