

DEADLY INTELLIGENCE

TOO MUCH KNOWLEDGE CAN BE DEADLY

 BEYOND
DISTRIBUTION

This new and revealing real-life documentary series investigates the suspicious deaths of many of the world's most renowned scientists.

Over the past few decades, dozens around the world have died in unusual circumstances and many of the cases remain unexplained and unsolved.

Using expert analysis from former FBI investigators, explosives experts and undercover operatives, Deadly Intelligence cracks open these suspicious cases, revealing a deadly mix of conspiracy, espionage and intrigue.

From nuclear physicists blown up with car bombs to artillery engineers shot dead on their doorstep, Deadly Intelligence proves that too much knowledge can definitely be dangerous.
