

DICK 'N' DOM GO WILD!

DICK 'N' DOM get their hands on back-stage passes for willing helpers to get stuck in at Britain's busiest vets, wildlife sanctuaries and animal rescue centres. Their young volunteers are up for a massive challenge but they're not all big animal lovers. Will a day on the frontline looking after wounded wildlife and poorly pets change their minds?

Richard McCourt and Dominic Wood take willing volunteers to work with injured wild animals and sick pets and for some recruits this is the first time they'll have come into close contact with animals. Some of them aren't allowed pets, others are scared of wild animals and many of them think that British wildlife is downright boring. But Dick and Dom are out to change all that and show their volunteers that pets and wildlife really rock and that animals need their help!

Each episode features two new pairs of volunteers at different locations – with Dick helping one team and Dom helping the other. The intrepid duos need to be prepared to get mucky, stinky, wet and muddy. There are plenty of laughs along the way but some sad stories too as Dick and Dom's helpers find out the harsh reality for some of Britain's most neglected and needy creatures. Across the series Dick and Dom take volunteers to help a wide range of creatures including dogs, donkeys, penguins, ponies, swans, squirrels, badgers, bats, foxes and fawns. But Dick and Dom don't just stand back and let their teams do all the hard work. Instead they're rolling up their sleeves and getting stuck in too!
