

AS THE HEADLINES HAVE DISAPPEARED, YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNDERSTANDING OF HIV HAS BECOME CONFUSED.

Through a series of direct and often emotional interviews, encounters and experiences, a new generation of young people reveal how they contracted HIV, how they cope and the impact it's had on their close relationships. At the heart of each episode is a love story.

The family trying for a baby, the Indian widow looking for love, the South African singer's HIV revelation to her boyfriend and the American mother and daughter who are both HIV positive. The series travels to St. Petersburg, London, New York, Johannesburg and Mumbai.

Love In A Time Of HIV avoids the tired old tales of woe and instead paints a portrait of a generation of HIV positive people leading their lives and finding love.

These are stories of triumph in the face of utmost adversity.
