TV's REAL STORIES

Meet the real people, places and events behind our favourite hit television shows.

TUBE TALES: TV's Real Stories is a half-hour documentary series that blends our interest in fascinating characters and stories with a behind-the-scenes look at the television series that have become a part of our lives.

Stories feature the real-life situations and people that inspired writers and producers, the actual places that became settings for TV series, or even an event that became a memorable episode.
