

EPISODE 1

Hampered by extensive repairs and hard-to-find parts, the restoration crew race the clock to transform a rare 1967 amphibious car from a rusty relic into a profitable auction-block winner. The Amphicar is a German built novelty. Not only is it a car but it is also a boat!

CAR CAZAR

Searching the dusty garages and barnyards across America, Alan Lewenthal rescues rare classic motorcars and expertly transforms each one into a treasured piece of automotive history. Although Alan takes pleasure in his auto-archaeology adventures, his passion is also his business. Working with a team of highly-skilled restoration technicians, Alan has built a worldwide reputation for the immaculate resurrection of rusty heaps that bring astounding sale prices at classic car auctions.

EPISODE 2

This customized 1954 Oldsmobile will be restored using auto-archaeology detective work that uncovers crucial photographic records of the car's history to solve mysteries surrounding this one-of-a-kind piece of art.

To resurrect a classic 1969 Chevrolet Camaro Z28, the crew persist against the devastating effects of massive corrosion and the difficulties of finding authentic engine parts to restore this rare muscle car. A custom colour paint job adds to the restoration challenge.
