When all hope is lost, fear will rise

There's terror in paradise when Jaelyn (Alicia Silverstone) and Kyle (James Tupper) travel to a remote seaside villa in Vietnam for a romantic getaway. A torrential storm descends, reducing the villa to little more than a raft and sweeping the young couple out to sea. Suddenly, another danger appears — a school of great white sharks. With her injured husband watching helplessly, Jaelyn must battle the deadly predators alone.
