

SERIES INFORMATION

Smithsonian Channel • Docuseries • 60 Mins

Season 1 (8 episodes)

A brutal war against a ferocious enemy, captured in color.

The Pacific War was unlike any military conflict before it in terms of its scale, scope, and savagery. Witness the massive attacks on Pearl Harbor and Hiroshima and Nagasaki that bookended the war, along with the ferocious battles in between--ones waged on tiny islands and remote atolls and fought by soldiers, Marines, airmen and sailors. With color combat footage and accounts from those who experienced the fight firsthand, we reveal the brutal reality of life on the frontline during the battle for the Pacific.

THE PACIFIC WAR IN COLOR