Animated short, More Than I Want To Remember, chronicles the journey of Mugeni. During a time of war, the teenager searches for peace, family and her nation's people.

One night at her home in southeastern Congo, 14-year-old Mugeni awakes to the sounds of bombs. As her family scatters to the surrounding forests to save themselves, Mugeni finds herself completely alone. From there, she sets out on a remarkable solo journey across the globe, determined to reunite with her lost loved ones and lift up the Banyamulenge people.
