RENEWED FOR S8!

Blaze, AJ, and the Monster Machines go on turbo-charged, STEM problem-solving adventures. Give 'em some speed and let's blaze!

Blaze and the Monster Machines focuses on Blaze, the world's most amazing monster truck, his driver, an eight-year-old boy named AJ, and their adventures in Axle City – a town populated with big-wheeled vehicles known as Monster Machines. Blaze is Axle City's greatest hero and a champion of the racetrack. Whenever there's trouble, he's the truck everyone turns to for help because he can do things no other truck can! He's the fastest truck in town and with his knowledge of science and engineering, Blaze can overcome any challenge by transforming into just about anything. All he needs to become a helicopter, snow blower, backhoe, or even a waffle maker monster truck is the right parts! AJ and the home audience help Blaze on his adventures by exploring the physics of how things move, tackling problems through scientific inquiry and mathematics, and discovering the parts needed to make everyday technologies work.
